The Wolverine

1928

Published by the Students of Garher High School
Volume 1

Foreword

We the annual staff of '28 present to the student body of Garber High School this first edition of the Wolverine hoping that it may find friends, happy memories and new inspirations.

Dedication

To Clyde A. Boyd whose sound counsel, good fellowship, firm character, unfailing sympathy, and thoroughly good sportsmanship have proved an inspiration to us in our school days and an indelible influence in our lives, this first volume of the Wolverine is affectionately dedicated.

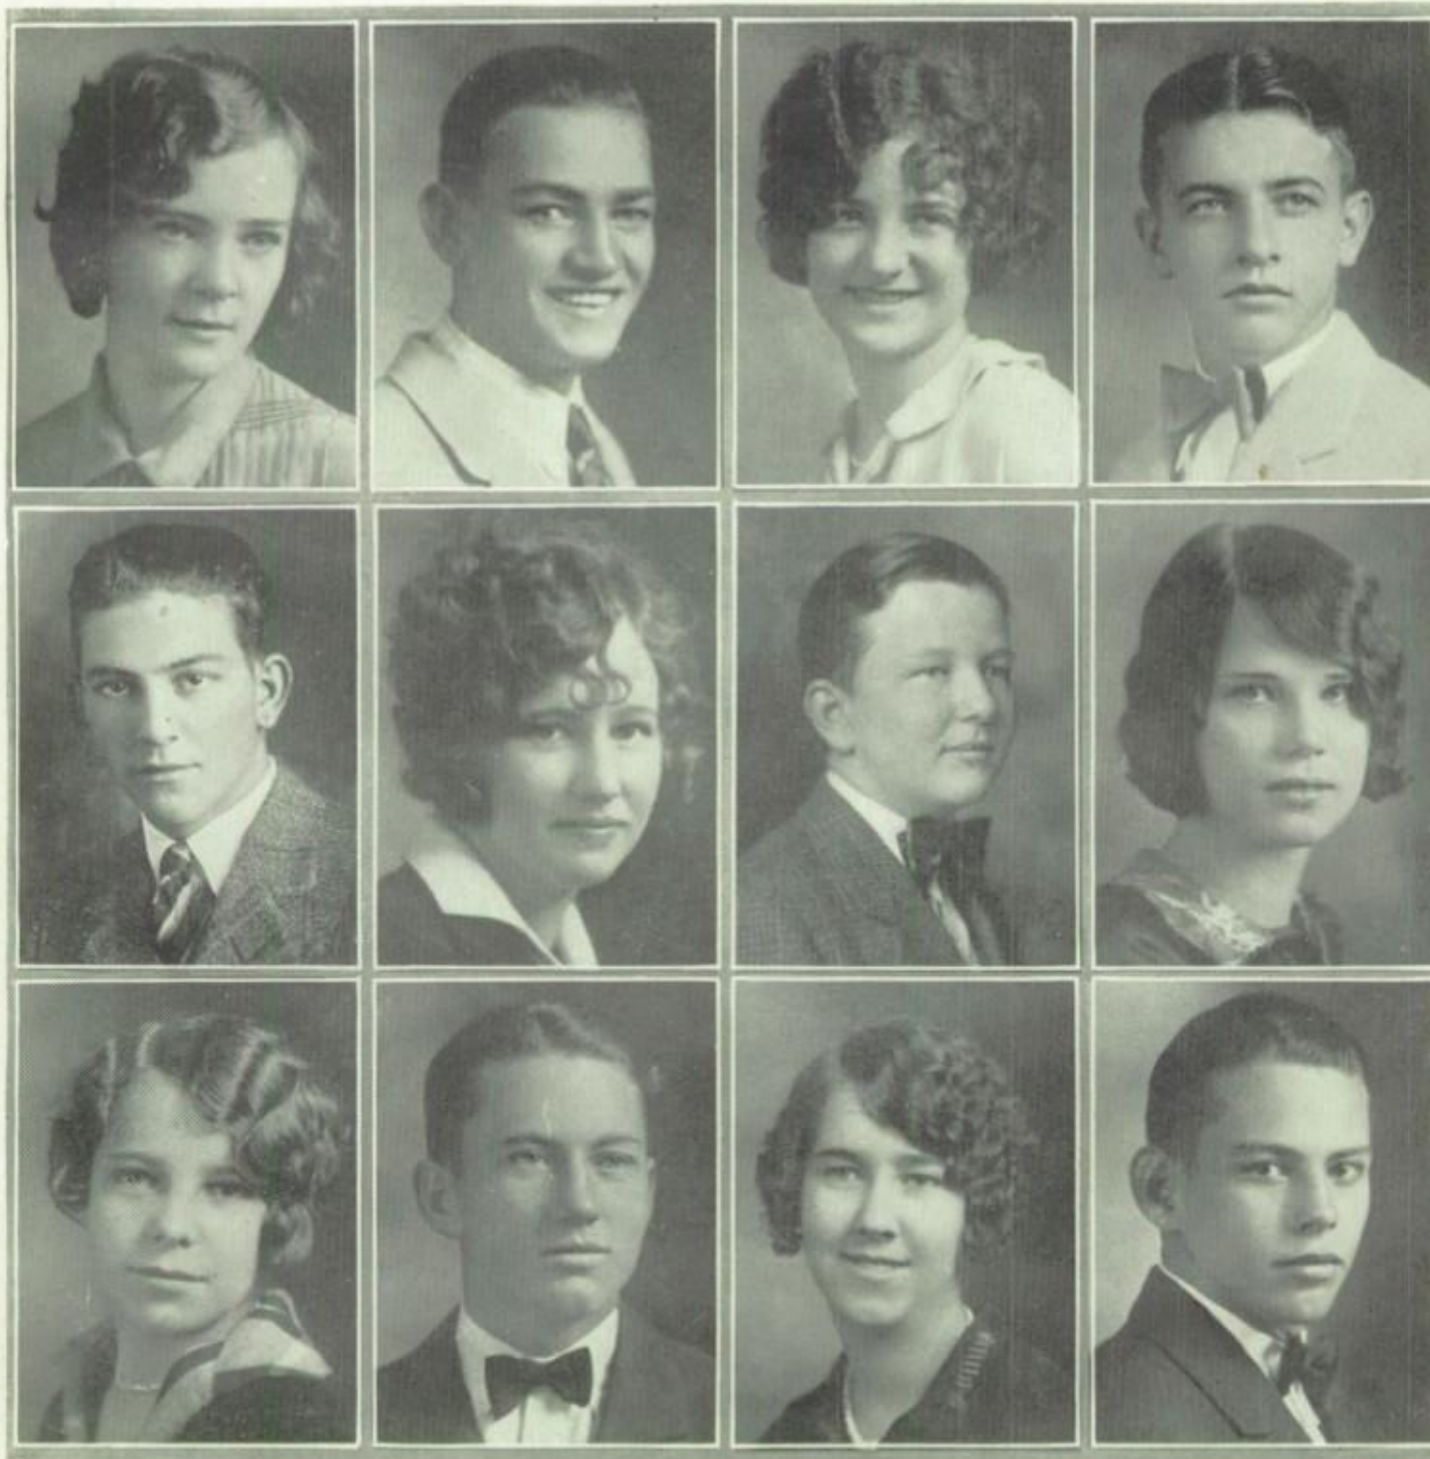

Appreciation

Because of his untiring work for us and with us and his unflagging interest, his cheerful assistance, his capable advise, and ready sympathy in our efforts to make the Wolverine a volume of which the school will be proud we wish to express our deepest and heartiest appreciation to our advisor, Ray O. Baird.

SCHOOL BOARD

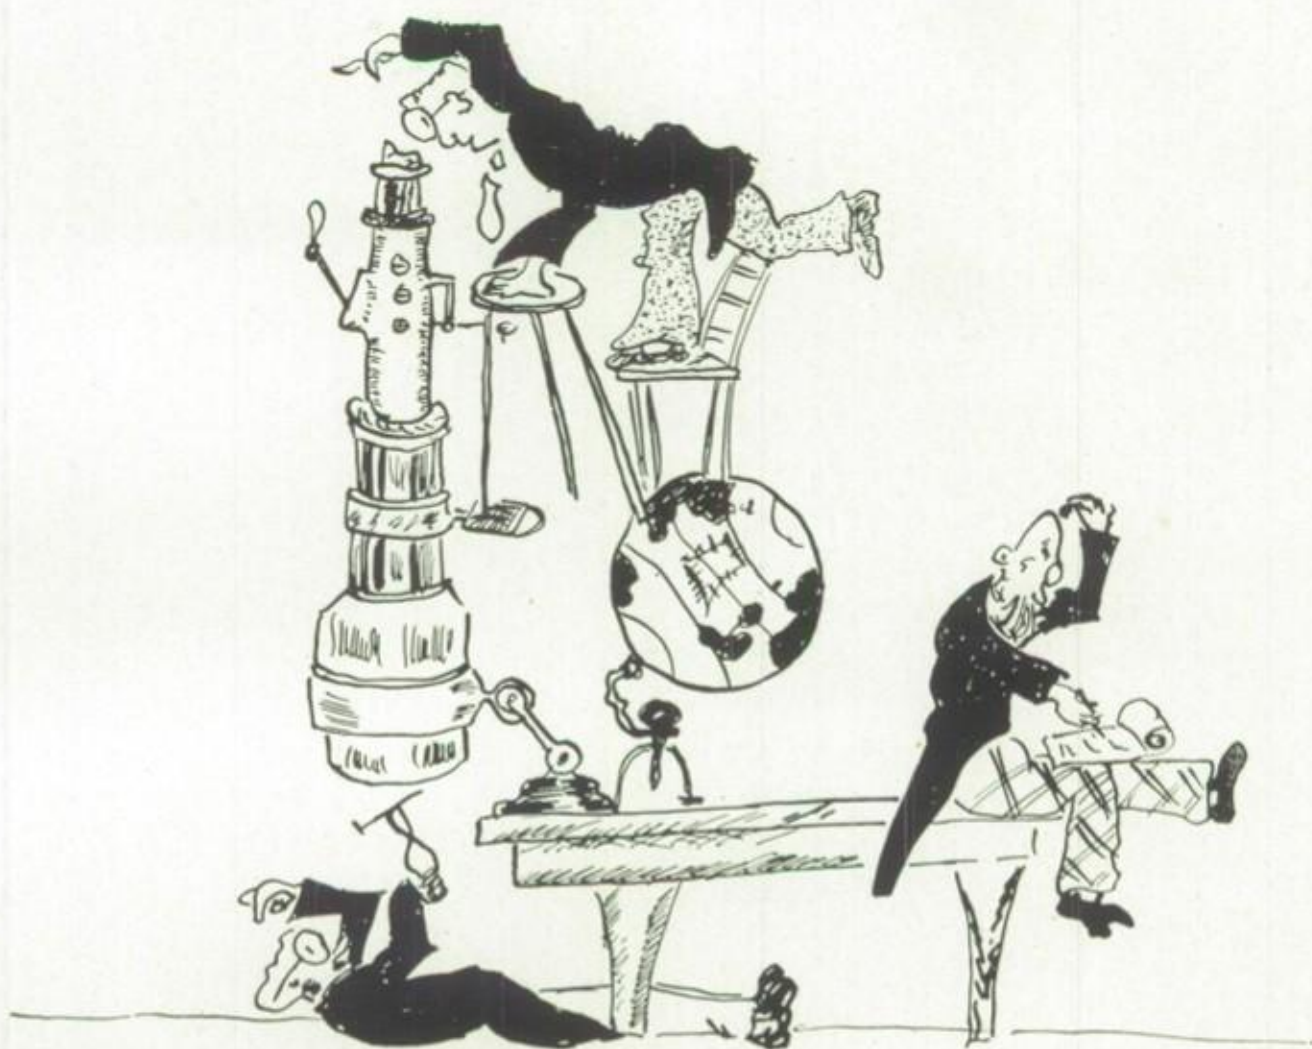

The School Board is composed of five members, one from each ward in town and one from the outlying parts of the district. Mr. J. D. Gibson, who has been on the School Board since 1919, represents the section of the district outside of the corporate limits.

Dr. Guy E. Brewer is the oldest in point of service having been a member of the board since 1914. Harry Magill is president of the Board and has been one of its members for the past four years. C. E. Carlin has also seen four years of service having been elected in 1923. He is clerk of the Board this year. Louis Lippert is a valued member of the Board, serving now as vice-president. He is a colleague of Mr. Gibson having been elected in 1919.

The community owes a debt of gratitude to these men who have given freely of their time and their interest that the Garber children might enjoy the superior advantages that the school has been able to give because of the efficiency and progressive attitude of the men who direct it.

Book One

FACULTY

R. D. Eaton, Superintendent of the Garber City Schools is an alumnus of Kingfisher College of the class of '14 having received part of his college work at the University of Michigan. Since receiving his B. A. degree he has done special work at O. U. in 1916 and in 1927. He expects to receive his Masters degree from O. U. in 1928.

He has been Superintendent of the Garber City Schools since 1917. In that time the high school has changed from a two year high school with an enrollment of about twenty to a fully accredited high school of about two hundred and belongs to the North Central Association of high schools. Under his supervision the Garber High School has become one of the foremost small town high schools in the state, being a leader in every progressive movement in secondary education.

May this outstanding character always be held high in the esteem of the student body.

CLASS WILL

To whom it may concern:

We, the dignified Seniors of the famous class of '28 of Garber High School, do in this document set forth our wills and we hereby do believe that we are in a sane mind, as follows:

- We will to the School Board a desire for a more perfect school.
 We, as a class, will to Mr. Boyd, our dear sponsor, a dozen great-grand children.
 To Mr. and Mrs. Eaton we will a happier married life.
 We will to Mr. Clyde C. Charvoz our tiniest Senior.
 To Miss Bullock we will a nice fat husband.
 To Miss Keller we will a nice temper and more red hairs.
 To Miss Mary we will a Journalism class that can write news.
 To Mr. Baird we will another good looking girl on the annual staff of 1929.
 I, Clyde Boyd, sponsor of the Senior class, will to Mr. Clark all my extra paper files.
 I, Henrietta Boyer, will my ability to argue to Irma Robinson.
 I, Cynthia Byrd, will my quiet disposition to Eda Lou Barhyte.
 I, Bernice Clow, will my giggle to Edna Dosser.
 I, Scott Rider, will my popularity among the girls to John Nipper.
 I, Mary Eula Smith, will my Home Ec. ability to Dorothy Janssen.
 I, Tweed Failing, will my position as star basketball player to Graden Hale.
 I, Esther Coe, will my rogue, powder puff and lip stick to Helen Flick.
 I, Delbert Brunken, will my heart, hand and blond hair to Allene Haughey.
 I, Guy Sapp, will my gold tooth to Wayne Maupin.
 I, Lurene Kindt, will my permanent to Bonnie Dunlavy.
 I, Jesse Pruett, will my desire for wine, women and movies to Arthur La Grange.
 I, George Porter, will my high grades to Wesley Lowrey.
 I, Jimmy Krivohlavek, will my ability as a Spanish shark to Floyd Gibson.
 I, Lemarch Smith, will my ability to run to Ben Goodman.
 I, Virginia Norman, will my seat on the bus by Arthur Sims to Ollie Disney.
 I, Etta Hillhouse, will my baby face to Edith Armour.
 I, Elva Dvoracek, will my school girl complexion to Nellie Hay.
 I, Arthur Sims, will my ability to make a hit and a home drive to Richard Taft.
 I, Louella Seaman, will my title as song bird to Evelyn Southwick.
 I, Walter Grother, will my freckles to whomever wants them.
 I, Billie Cox, will my ability to care for children to Pete Conn and Paul Johnson.
 I, Leah Gage, will my seat by Guy Sapp to Vera Mae Gilger.
 I, Gene McLaughlin, will my smart sayings to Will Rogers.
 I, Paul Maly, will my Senior picture to next year's Sophomore class room.
 I, Lois Rosenberger, will my diamond to Lucille Goodwin.
 I, Earl Hutcherson, will my football captainship to Wilbur Huntsinger.
 I, Emilie Totusek, will my "specks" to Virginia Lyhene but never my Raymond.
 I, J. C. Failing, will my false teeth and glass eye to Courtney Buffington.
 I, Helen Barnett, will my typing ability to some Dumb Dora.
 I, Edna Hutcherson, will my position as yell leader to Lorna Graham.
 I, Arthur Moore, will my oratorical ability to Percy Hall.
 I, Genevieve Taft, will my jazz to Velma Reiger.
 I, Herman Ford, will my ability to act to John Wolford.
 I, Martha Trosper, will my little feet and my sweet disposition to Cleda Sims.
 I, Irene Crane, will you all the laughs and sighs of making this will.

Duly witnessed and signed on this day.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the summer of 1937, having established a new record for a non-stop flight around the world and being hailed as one of the best authors of the day, I decided to take a vacation and travel over the United States.

The World Series were then in progress between the Yankees and the Giants so I decided to start my vacation there. On looking at the names of the players I was surprised to see that the Yankee's catcher was Arthur Sims. On going into the diamond I noticed a young lady jumping up and down and yelling with all her might. I soon recognized Virginia Norman and she told me that she had changed her name to Sims several years before.

As I was traveling through the country I chanced to stop at a circus and the first thing that met my eye was the figure of a "barker" at one of the side shows. On going closer I saw that it was my old friend, Walter Grother. I bought a ticket and went in. In one cage was a ferocious looking person who was labeled as "The Missing Link". Imagine my surprise when I saw that it was Guy Sapp.

Finally the main show began. In the first ring was a lion tamer who was making large lions jump through hoops and stand on their heads. I had to look several times before I could be sure it was Earl Gregg.

The circus was a good one but the part I liked best was the acrobatic act in which Earl Hutcherson and his wife (formerly Leah Gage) performed many daring feats. After the show was over I went around to see the manager. I almost dropped when I recognized Jimmy Krivohlavek. While the circus was billed as "Hoople Brothers," Jimmy told me he had not wanted to use his own name.

That evening I went to an opera. I received a great shock when the first singer came out on the stage, it was Louella Seaman. Later in the evening Scott Rider played his saxophone. I went around to the back after the show was over and learned that they had been married three years and were very happy. They also told me that Tweed Failing and Lurene Kindt had been married for several years.

When I returned to Garber I found things much changed. Etta Hillhouse and Irene Crane were teachers in the new Garber University of which Prof. Eaton was Dean and Mr. Boyd was head coach. Lois Rosenberger was a great authoress and her husband, Paul Maly, was a great scientist.

My old chums Arthur Moore and Delbert Brunken were farmers and were well known for their prize beef cattle. J. C. Failing had married Elva Dvoracek who had been twice chosen the United States Beauty Queen. Emilie Totusek was a telephone operator and Cynthia Byrd, defeated in her desire to marry Tweed Failing, washed dishes in a cafe.

Herman Ford was a traveling representative for the Kleenfaze Soap Company. He had a wife (Bernice Clow) and seventeen children. Jesse Pruett was the sheriff of Garfield County and his wife, formerly Edna Hutcherson, was running for president.

Mary Eula Smith and Genevieve Taft were nurses in the new Garber Hospital, and George Porter was the eye, ear, nose and throat specialist there. Billie Cox was the matron in an orphanage. Henrietta Boyer, Esther Coe, Martha Trosper and Helen Barnett were all chorus girls in the Smith Follies of which Lemarch Smith was owner. Lemarch was also married to Henrietta. Much surprised at all this I went on with my travels.

The season of 1928 was a good one. Jet and Pond Creek tied for first place in the conference.

Garber went to Jefferson as the first game winning with a score of 14-8.

Nash came to Garber the next week being beaten by the Wolverines with a score of 21-19. The game was close as the score indicates.

The Wolverines went to Hunter the next week winning by a score of 9-5.

The game between the Helena five and the Wolverines was a victory for Garber. 23-10 was the score as the final whistle blew.

Pond Creek was the only game lost so far as the season is on. Pond Creek forged ahead in the first quarter and we never got the lead. The score at the end of the last quarter was 22-12.

The Garber Wolverines went to Medford the next week adding another victory to the list by winning with a score of 32-18.

The Wolverines added another notch in their stock by taking a game from Tonkawa. 23-15 was the score as the final whistle blew. The game was played here.

Before this game was played there were four teams tied for first place. Deer Creek and Garber being two of them. Garber defeated the Deer Creek five leaving Garber, Jet and Pond Creek tied for first place. The score of this game was 22-10.

At the tournament held in Lamont, Garber nosed out Medford by 32-17 and the second round lost to Pond Creek 16-13. Jet won the tournament.

Since there are so many pupils that one teacher can not instruct them, each class is divided into groups. Each group has chosen a leader who is instructed by Miss Keller. Calisthenics, setting-up exercises, carriage and posture exercises are on the regular program. Basket ball and other games form diversion in the schedule of work.

Several demonstrations from this department were given between halves at the football games.

FOOTBALL—REVIEW OF SEASON

The next week following our defeat the Pond Creek eleven came to Garber with the intention of defeating the Wolverines but were somewhat disappointed as Garber won, the score being 38-13.

Armistice Day was a good day for the Wolverines as they defeated the Goltry string with a large score of 88-0.

Helena came to Garber expecting to win but not many teams that expected to were satisfied and Garber won again with a 65-0 as the score.

Thanksgiving day was a disappointing day for the Wolverines as Covington outscored us on their own soil. 7-19 were the sad figures.

The men who made the All-Conference team were: First team, Arthur Sims, Graden Hale; Second team, George Fisher, J. C. Failing, Earl Hutcherson and Lloyd Conn.

Cheer Leader _____ Edna Hutcherson

Sponsor _____ Miss Potter

The pep club was organized this year by the girls of Senior High under the name of "Red Hots". Miss Potter was elected sponsor of the club.

The girls gave good support throughout the year to the boys on the football and basketball teams. They not only displayed lots of pep and a keen interest in the games but showed a splendid type of courtesy to the visiting teams. Never forgetting to live up to the standards of sportsmanship set by the Wolverines themselves.

Edna Hutcherson proved herself not only one of the most faithful and "peppiest" cheer leaders Garber has ever had but was also a leader who carried her club members with her with ease and tact.

Fourth Row—Miss Browning, Sponsor, Irene Adams, Fern Dunbar, Bonnie Housmon, Beatrice Bowen, Helen Slentz, Wanda Peachee, Emma Jane Howard, Maxine Raulston, Freda Kindt, Naomi Mannin, Mary Ford.

The Wolverinktum Pep Club is composed of girls from Junior High School who are interested in athletics and in boosting the Garber teams.

The Wolverinktums helped stage the first shirt-tail parade before the opening game of the season, and from that time on they were represented at every game, every pep meeting and every booster meeting held until after Thanksgiving. On various occasions the pep club put on stunts at general assembly and in every way possible encouraged our team to victory and the school to the proper appreciation of our athletic achievements.

The members of the Wolverinktum Pep Club are among the best students in the Junior High School and are representatives of the spirit of that organization. The accomplishments of the club were due to the enthusiastic and capable leadership of the two yell leaders, Lula Mae King and Betty Failing, and their sponsor, Miss Browning.

Fourth Row—Miss Keller, Instructor, Mildred Stam, Virginia Lyhene, Bernice Deeds, Anna Krivohlavek, Mildred Brice, Bonnie Dunlavey, Lucile Ford, Helen Armour.

The cooking classes are so grouped that each member of the class is afforded opportunity to do all various types of work encountered in preparing a meal. A daily demonstration of the efficiency of this class is given in the cafeteria where an excellent lunch is prepared and served to about one hundred and twenty-five.

There are forty girls enrolled in these cooking classes.

The instructor, Miss Keller, has shown great ability in teaching the girls.

Second Row—Wayne Cinnamon, Forest Prickett, Wyley Cramer, Tommie Green, Wallace Lafferty, Delbert Brunken, Wilber Huntsinger, Eldo Janssen, Joe Maly, Elmer Simik.

Third Row—Mr. Baird, Owen Bradford, Mervil Hamn, Samis Peters, Guy Norman, Joe Deeds, Floyd Gibson, Buster Bradford, Milton Duncan, Lloyd Janssen, Cleo Haworth.

The boys of the Agriculture department during the year '27-'28 have been under the supervision of Mr. Baird. During the first half of the school term their work consists of studying farm life; the second half they take up manual training.

Their biggest project this year has been landscaping the school grounds. This project will be the most constructive project that has ever been completed at the Garber High School. One of the outstanding activities of the Vocational Agriculture Classes is the livestock judging teams that they put out. The record of having been champion livestock judges for the last five years is a record that has never been equaled by any high school in the state. The services that the class renders the community by its work on terracing, selection of good livestock, culling poultry, vaccinating livestock, and pruning and spraying orchards are invaluable.

Guardian	Miss Mary Overholt
Secretary-Treasurer	Nellie Hay
Troop Leader	Elizabeth Smith

Last spring a troop of Camp Fire Girls was organized in school, but they had only time to receive their charter and get ready for work, when their guardian left for the summer.

With the opening of school regular meetings began and hikes and outings were an almost weekly occurrence. Most of the girls are wearing their Camp Fire rings and a number of them have qualified for the rank of Fire Maker.

The organization presented the school a state flag at an assembly program given by the group.

A number of honors have been won by most of the girls, some having to their credit many beads representing every department of Camp Fire work. More honors have been won in home-craft however than in any other department.

MISS LUCILE WOOLWINE

Voice

Miss Lucille Woolwine who has her degree from Phillips University, is in charge of the voice department in Garber High School. She has been doing very commendable work with both boys' and girls' glee clubs. These two clubs are enthusiastically entering into the Salt Fork Valley Conference contest. Besides being a very efficient director, Miss Woolwine deserves much credit for the work she has done with her individual voice pupils.

Mrs. O. J. Sowell who has been assistant to Professor Oberg at Phillips University has taught expression in Garber High School during the school year. Through Mrs. Sowell's efficiency in expression work, much benefit is to be derived by the students of this high school.

JOKES

Frank Spencer - Class

To our most beloved and efficient janitor, Frank Spencer, this section of the 1928 Wolverine is respectfully dedicated because of his untiring patience with all of us and particularly his devoted affections for the "Danged Hounds" who have been an especial trial to his optimism and cheerful outlook on life in general and school in particular.

WOLVERINE

Warden: "We let prisoners work at their trade here the same as before. Blacksmith, shoemaker, carpenter or what it may be. What is your trade?"

Prisoner: "I am a traveling salesman, sir."

If a young man and his girl should eat a blue jay, what would their phone number be?

Answer: 281J.

Irene Crane: "Louella, why are you hanging up two socks?"

Louella Seaman: "Well, if Santa Claus is going to give me a man, I want him to have two legs."

Boyd: "What's your name?"

Stranger: "Gus."

Boyd: "Gus What?"

Stranger: "Asparagus."

WOLVERINE

Hutch: "What were you put on earth for?"

Toben: "I'm God's gift to the women."

Dick Taft: "She was only a janitor's daughter but she swept me off my feet."

Miss Browning: "What's the difference between a pill and a hill?"

Wendel Cole: "A hill is hard to get up and pill is hard to get down."

Jesse H.: "How is married life?"

Paul Johnson: "Great."

GETTING NATURALIZED

"Next."

"Who, me?"

"Born?"

"Yes sir."

"Where?"

"Russia."

"What part?"

"All of me."

"Why did you leave Russia?"

"I couldn't bring it with me."

"Where were your fore-fathers born?"

"I only got one father."

"Your business?"

"It's rotten."

"Where is Washington?"

"He's dead."

"I mean the capitol of the United States."

"They loaned it all to Europe."

"You do promise to support the constitution?"

"Me? How can I. I've got a wife and six children to support."

Prof: "Melvin, what kind of a girl do you expect to marry?"

Melvin: (After a very pleasant evening and afternoon, dancing on the stage) "Don't know haven't got the Bug yet."

It was at an Irish funeral and when Pat viewed the face of his departed friend he burst into laughter. At home his wife asked the cause of his untimely mirth. "You see it was this way: Just last week Mike was telling me he didn't believe in Heaven or Hell, and when I saw him lyin' there lookin' so swell I couldn't help thinkin' why he's all dressed up and got no place to go."

Jimmy Krivohlovek: "We won."
 Boyd: "Did we get what we were fighting for?"
 Jimmy: "We got the experience."

Tweed Failing: "What is good for fallen arches?"
 Boyd: "Rubber heels."
 Tweed: "What shall I rub them with?"

Miss Mary: "Where are you going Otto?"
 Otto Miller: "Home."
 Miss Mary: "No you are not."
 Otto: "I mean my home room."

Teacher: "Iky, make a sentence using word 'pencil'."
 Iky: "Vith de utmost choy, teacher. If Moses don't leave mine suspenders alone, mine pencil fall."

Wonder why Mr. Boyd teases Earl Gregg about Irma Robinson?

How long you in jail fo, Mose?
 Two weeks.
 What am de ch'ge?
 No ch'ge, everything am free.
 Ah mean, what has you did?
 Done shot my wife.
 You killed yo'wife and only in jail fo' two weeks?
 Dat's all—den I gets hung.

Mrs. Eaton: Who has been cutting initials on the desks?
 Courtney Buffington: (Innocently) "Lou did it."

"What did Adam and Eve do when they left the garden of Eden?"
 "Raised Cain."

Miss Keller: "There's two thing I wont tell you."
 Melvin Riggs: "What are they?"
 Miss Keller: "My age and weight."

Courtney Buffington thinks Columbus discovered America in a steam boat.

Wanted: A seven letter word for "The Yanks are coming."
 Answer: "Dentist."

We are glad to see that Paul Johnson can ask for his milk bottle instead of crying for it.

Mr. Boyd: "Why did you get married?"
 Pete Conn: "You said if I couldn't stay away from her I'd better marry her."

PLACING THE BLAME

"How does the land lie out this way?" asked the stranger.
 "It ain't the land that lies mister, it's the real-estate agents."

STILL IN PRACTICE

"Has your husband given up golf?" someone asked Mrs. Smith.
 "Oh! Yes," was the reply, "But he still uses the language when changing tires."

"Are you a fraternity man?"
 "No! Someone gave me this shirt for Christmas."

Question: Why does Percy Hall ride on the bus?
 Answer: To keep Beulah's hand from getting cold.

Question: (Dick Taft to Virginia Lyhene) "Have you heard that Orange Juice song?"
 Answer: "No, What's it about?"
 Answer: "Orange Juice Sorry."

Charvoz: "Martha what are the human teeth used for?"
 Martha Trosper: "To tell how old you are."

Graden: "Bernice where's my De Molay pin?"
 Bernice Clow: "I took it off because Walter said 'He scratched his hand'."

Arthur Sims: "How's the race?"
 Mildred Brice: "What race?"
 Arthur: "The human race. Ha! Ha!"
 Mildred: "Oh! Just neck and neck."

Esther Coe: "What is cure for love at first sight?"
 Helen Barnett: "Second sight."

Frosh: "Why were you born in Ireland?"
 Soph: "Ya see I wanted to be near my mother."

BRIEF VACATION

Jack Conn: "Melvin I dreamed about you last night."
 Melvin Riggs: "What did you dream?"
 Jack: "I dreamed you were leading a donkey down the street and singing, 'Me and my shadow all alone and feeling blue'."

Miss Bullock: "Who broke the window while I was out?"
 Robert Bridges: "John did, he ducked when I threw an eraser at him."

"What is a High School professor?"
 "He is a guy that gets the money after the coaches are paid."

Mistress: Mary your young man has an air of braggadocia about him."
 Mary: "Yes, poor lad, he works in a livery stable."

Prof. Eaton thinks a little bug is more active in the spring. We don't know.

Mr. Boyd: "Give the summary of the war of 1812."

Walter Grother took Bernice Clow out riding one pleasant afternoon and on account of his neglect they ran out of gas one mile and a half out of town.

Why do we see Aaron Stoker's car parked in front of the second house north of Mr. Boyd's so much?

Miss Mary: "Cleo Mc. Where is Martha Trosper?"

Cleo: "I don't know. Could you find Charvoz?"

Why does Elva Dvoracek like to be teased about Scott Rider so well?

Why does Mildred Miles check to Mr. Boyd's room when Donald Toben is in there?

We wonder if Edna Hutcherson is still good at playing bridge in the dressing room?

Mr. Charvoz: "Take down this experiment."

"My little dog is dead

His tail will wag no more

For what he thought was H₂O (water)

Was H 2 S O 4 (Sulphuric Acid).

"When does a person become a Senior?"

"When they have spring fever all the year around."

Prof: "If you wanted to go see the show, why didn't you ask for permission?"

Floyd Gibson: "Because I wanted to see the show."

"Lived here all your life?"

"Don't know, haven't died yet."

Edna Haworth: "Wasn't Keller a good chaperon?"

Melvin Riggs: "Oh h h ! Was she the chaperon?"

Melvin Riggs: "Do you know how to make Budweiser?"

Hutch: "No! How?"

Riggs: "Send him to school."

Indian: "I want a corset for my wife, Heap Fat."

Clerk: "What bust?"

Indian: "Hell, dress bust all time seem like."

Prof: "Talk louder! What did you do last vacation, talk louder!"

Stude: "Gosh! I wasn't a yell leader."

"Why does Mr. Boyd call Floyd Gibson a tramp?"

"He dreams in his history class."

She: "Stag tonight?"

He: "Yes! I haven't any doe."

"Did you see the baggage display?"

"No, where was it?"

"At the show, twenty girls came on the stage in trunks."

Book Nine

Dearest Lucy,

I'll never forget the days we churned together and the good times we'll have had. Do you remember the time we went to Lamont and how tired we were? We've had good times together and I know they're not ended yet by any means.

You've been the only girl who has been able to get along with me because of my temper, and I only hope we can always be friends.

Remember well and bear in ^{mind}
a good true friend is hard to ^{find}
When you find one that's good and true
Change the old not for the new.

Always remember
your friend and pal.
Jessie Tucker

SINCLAIR GASOLINE AND OILS

A JOB HALF DONE IS NOT DONE AT ALL

—What difference does it make, if the thing be an education, a house or a motor oil—if it is only “half done, it’s not done, it not done at all!”

—If your motor oil has only “quality”, then it is only half right!

—You need the right “grade” or body, too!

—Why? Because motor oil, to do a complete job when it goes up into your cylinders, must fill the space between each piston and cylinder wall—must seal this space to prevent the power from blowing by—that’s complete, precise lubrication, according to the “degree of wear”.

—Consult the Sinclair Lubrication chart—and finish the ob with Sinclair Opaline Motor Oils.
